EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

This report covers the period 1 July – 30 September 2022 and focuses on various highlights during the period:

OVERVIEW - ECONOMIC OUTLOOK

The latest economic data continues to indicate a fragile economic recovery with diverse sector performance and weak spending growth. The recovery has not been helped by intensified loadshedding by Eskom that has disrupted economic activity and damaged confidence.

While the GDP data for Q2 2022 points to marginal growth in relation to the previous year, it suggests a contraction in the seasonally-adjusted annualised data when compared to the preceding quarter and an economy that is, once again, smaller than it was before the start of COVID-19.

In addition to some improvements in the aggregate number of people employed, there were reductions in the expanded unemployment rate in the first half of 2022. These were accompanied by relative increases in both absorption and participation rates. However, almost all employment and labour indicators are still notably worse than before COVID.

The financial position of many consumers has deteriorated as a result of increased inflationary pressures arising from higher food, energy and transport costs. Although these pressures were already rising prior to Russia's invasion of Ukraine, they were exacerbated by that conflict. In response, the Monetary Policy Committee of the South African Reserve Bank has – along with monetary authorities in many other parts of the world – raised policy rates.

In South Africa's case the repo rate was increased by 75 basis points to 6.25 percent in September 2022. This is the same level as prevailed before COVID. However, because of significantly higher inflation, real borrowing costs are substantially lower now than before COVID – with real prime overdraft rates of 183 basis points compared with 637 basis points in November 2019.

One of the encouraging developments has been a relative improvement in levels of gross capital formation, with spending on both fixed capital formation and inventories increasing in both absolute and relative terms. The downside of this has been a rapid increase in imports – particularly of machinery and equipment – which has resulted in the trade balance moving from a large surplus to a small deficit. At the same time, export earnings have continued to be supported by high gold and coal prices that are beneficiaries of the heightened global uncertainty and disruptions to European gas supplies due to the war in the Ukraine.

On the production side of the economy, the primary and secondary sectors – which are exposed to international competition to a greater extent – all contracted on a year-on-year basis in Q2 2022. The fragility of the recovery is also reflected in the recent performance of high frequency data, which remains quite mixed. Some indicators – such as manufacturing production volumes, vehicle exports, retail sales and tourism accommodation – suggest improvement and expansion, while others – such as mining production volumes, building plans passed and liquidations and insolvencies – point to deterioration and contraction.

(NEDLAC: Economic and Employment Indicators September 2022)

The Buy Local campaign and its role in driving economic growth, in response to the above overview:

Proudly SA continues to have a meaningful role in growing the economy through its role of promoting the buying of locally made products and services, in order to stimulate demand for these products and services, by all sectors of society, such that existing jobs can be retained and new job opportunities can be created.

In order to achieve this, the campaign has the following key focus areas, and these are to:

- Educate consumers on the importance of country-of-origin labels and the economy wide benefits of buying locally made products and services;
- Influence both the public and the private sector(s) to increase their respective levels of local procurement;
- Increase the accessibility of locally made products and services

This is done through various programmes and activities as outlined in the approved Annual Performance Plan, which is derived from the organisational strategic plan and the details contained in this report outlines the progress made during quarter 2 of the 2022/23 financial year.

THE QUARTER UNDER REVIEW

4.1) High level achievements for the quarter

During the quarter under review, the Proudly SA campaign was able to achieve most of its targets as contained in the Annual Performance Plan (APP) for the first quarter of the 2022/23 financial year.

The following were some of the achievements and most of these are reported in detail in Section 5 of the report:

- The above the line campaign as part of the strategic objective of educating consumers on the importance of buying local was able to reach in excess of 30 million consumers;
- There was also commendable performance as it relates to below the line activities with 30,4 million people reached against a target of 3 million for the quarter;
- A major consumer activation, in the form of the DSTV Delicious Festival was rolled out and reached in excess of 50k consumers over the 2 day period, and also provided an access to market opportunity for 23 member companies (with 8 of these in the Pop-Up shop).
- In total, three (3) Campus/Community targeted competitions/ advertising campaigns were rolled out against two (2) which were planned for the second quarter of the current financial year;
- The organisation hosted and participated in 4 major trade expos during the period under review, namely Decorex, Smart Procurement Indaba, DSTV Delicious Festival and the inaugural Wine Expo, in line with the target for the quarter of introducing at least one sector specific Expo;
- In celebrating Heritage Month and aligning this period with celebrating everything local, there were 3 campaigns and activations that were launched rolled out during that period.
- In an attempt to drive up compliance with local content regulations in the public sector, a presentation was made to heads of procurement in state owned entities that are part of the State-Owned Entities Procurement Forum (SOEPF) at their quarterly meeting that took place during September.
- In addition to participating in BUSA's monthly localisation committee, the organisation made a presentation to Nedlac's Trade and Industry Chamber outlining the results of the localisation study as concluded during the period under review, and also managed to meet with and present to at least 10 business chambers and/or associations.
- 1,409 tenders issued for designated sectors/products were identified through the monitoring system and this amounted to 1,109 more tenders than the initially set target;
- In driving local procurement in the private sector, Proudly SA continues to participate in BUSA's monthly localisation committee meetings and made presentation(s) on its mandate and the results of localisation study to all NEDLAC constituencies;
- It is also worth noting that a partnership with The Alternative Power (Pty) Ltd was concluded during the quarter under review as part of PSA's current financial years 'commitment to conclude the same with at least 2 major retailers / manufacturers;
- A commitment to continuously review and increase levels of local content in their stores was secured from Makro Market Place;
- The organisation exceeded its recruitment target of new members by 10 against the planned target of 80 for the quarter by signing up 90 new members during the quarter;
- Regarding retention of members, an 82% retention rate was achieved for Quarter 2;
- We added 364 locally made products and services to the database, which is 179 more products and services than the target;
- Three media events were successfully hosted during the period under review, which enabled us to actively and directly engage with the media.
- In driving consumer demand in support of the sectoral Masterplans, two sector specific campaigns/ activities were implemented in the current quarter against a single campaign/activity that was scheduled for the same period.

4.2) Areas where targets were not met:

During the quarter under review, the Proudly SA campaign was not able to achieve all its targets as contained in the Annual Performance Plan (APP) for the first quarter of the 2022/23 financial year, and below are some of the areas where the campaign fell short for the quarter:

- The planned consumer education programme targeting basic education learners was deferred to the third quarter as extensive effort in this regard was extended to tertiary institutions during the quarter under review;
- The planned public sector forum in partnership with National Treasury, as well as those to be hosted in partnership with metros and district municipalities, have been postponed to the next quarter due to the fact that the clarity from the Constitutional court on preferential procurement was received too late to plan and properly secure these partnerships.
- The organisation also fell short of implementing its planned targeted outreach programme to labour federations/or unions as part of its consumer education campaign efforts;
- 5 Less Business forums and/or webinars were hosted as part of PSA's advocacy efforts to increase uptake of local products by the private sector however there are plans to make good on this deficit in the next quarter;
- In rolling out market access programmes, for the benefit of designated groups within our database, three programmes were rolled out where youth, women and black-owned businesses were exposed to consumers, retailers and buyers of their respective products and service offerings;
- Commitments which relate to improvement in accessibility and uptake of locally made products and services through online platforms are also deferred to Quarter 1 of the 2023/24 financial year as a result of the decision to start the development of PSA's own online eCommerce site however Proudly SA has partnered with other online eCommerce sites (i.e., Zulzi, Makro Marketplace, Bizzmed, etc) with PSA's members being enlisted in those sites.
- From a PR perspective, the lack of a PR Manager resulted in targets being missed for press releases issued (7 instead of 12) and for media engagements (where we had 5 instead of the targeted 12), however a lot of media houses were reached through the 3 media events hosted during the quarter. A new PR Manager has been recruited and will help drive this division from Q3 onwards; and
- Proudly SA is to furthermore revise its operational plans for subsequent quarters to ensure that it meets its outstanding commitments which include amongst others conducting post event/activations questionnaires.

The research concluded by Thinc Research which looked into the impact of the activities and programmes of the campaign continues to give valuable insights and is assisting the campaign to develop a scientific basis for its buy local and procurement programmes.

Target	80
Achievement	90

Target	80%
Achievement	82%

Target	190
Achievement	364
Previous Quarter: Q1 2022/2023	20,864
Current Quarter: Q2 2022/2023	21,228

4.3.2) Overview

The Proudly South African membership base is growing at a steady pace with 2,472 companies currently registered as members of the campaign.

In quarter two of 2022/2023, a total of 90 new members were recruited against the target of 80. The rate of retention of member companies for Q2 was 82% which is an improvement when comparing the same periods over the past two financial years.

The Manufacturing sector remains the strongest in both new member acquisitions and renewing members. The manufacturing sector, specifically of food products was the largest in new member recruitment. This could be attributed to the fact that the campaign is not only an advocacy campaign for buying and procuring local but also serves as an access to market platform that seeks to afford our member companies the opportunity to access the markets and increase their revenue. Food manufacturers joining the campaign as members is also positive for the campaign, as logos on food and beverage products offer the campaign greater brand visibility and exposure.

The new member acquisitions and renewal members are still largely located in the 3 large provinces being Gauteng, Western Cape and KwaZulu Natal.

Proudly South African's database of locally made products and services grew by 364 new products and services, exceeding the target of 190. We see a trend of member companies manufacturing a small basket of products only, and not a large assortment of products. They are putting all of their efforts into taking one or two products to market with minimum risk and are joining the campaign in order to reap the access to market benefits available to member companies.

We remain positive that the Market Access Platform (MAP) and the new strategic online partnerships will provide our members with access to market that will drive their anticipated business growth.

HIGHLIGHTS FOR THE QUARTER

Business Forum Webinar - 05 July 2022

Topic: Product Packaging

SMMEs and Entrepreneurs are important contributors to job creation and economic development in our country. We must help them succeed, and many would love to see their products on retailers' shelves one day.

However, many do not have the proper marketing tools to attract consumers, starting with the packaging. The webinar focussed on regulations and legislation around packaging and labelling products in South Africa and gave case studies on what works, what doesn't, and what is and isn't legal.

Facilitator:

Happy MaKhumalo Ngidi opened and welcomed all panellists and attendees in the audience. Happy enlightened the attendees with background information about the event and topic at hand 'Product Packing'. Proudly SA and panel speakers (mentioned below) sought to assist SMMEs and entrepreneurs with matters relating to the packaging of products for these products to make it into retail spaces.

Speakers:

Ms. Alicia Logan: Membership Manager:

Discussion points: what it means to be a Proudly SA member, what the benefits of being a member are, and access to market opportunities for Proudly SA members.

Ms. Bridgette Canham & Precious Maot: CGCSA

Discussion points: CGCSA's/GS1 SMME retail readiness development programme available to assist SMME's access to key knowledge and information, compliance, understanding and accessing various certifications, management standards and legislation that manufacturers need to comply with food, safety, quality etc. The programme was designed to assist businesses to move forward.

Mr. Dumisani Mngadi: SABS

Discussion points: SABS's key focus was supporting SMMEs and Co-operatives. Winter Leadership Camp - University of the Witwatersrand Development and Leadership Unit - 8th July 2022

Proudly South African was invited to be a keynote speaker at the University of Witwatersrand Winter Leadership Camp which formed part of their Emerging Leaders Programme (ELP) for 2022.

The DLU's mission is to produce world leaders who seek to create positive change courageously, in all spheres of life; leaders who contribute to the development of the global south. Their pursuit for a better society all begins by creating stimulating and vibrant student experiences – on and off-campus – in the hope of an emergent paradigm shift. They believe that the spaces we operate in should be empowering and allow for constructive and critical inquiry, and responsible and responsive civic engagement. They believe in doing things differently because change is the new norm and want to be at the epicentre of that change.

Since its inception in 2007, ELP has contributed to shaping over 700 students who have gone on to be leaders in prominent fields after they have graduated from Wits University. For 2022, ELP will be a three-month programme, the biggest component being the Winter Leadership Camp.

CMO, Happy MaKhumalo Ngidi addressed the students with the topic “Leading through action” where she unpacked how leadership is often about providing direction. She further illustrated that leadership requires an understanding of how to lead through action to an identified cause.

The session provided insights and a framework on how to be compelling as a leader through planning, collaborating, and formulating impactful partnerships.

Proudly SA hosted its inaugural first wine expo from the 7th to 9th July at the Sandton Convention Centre. The expo objective was to provide an access to market opportunity for members in the wine sector. This is a labour-intensive industry that creates jobs, sustains jobs, and contributes immensely to the value chain of the industry as well as to the GDP.

The initiative was a joint effort with critical partners who gave the expo much gravitas and ensured success. Our partners for the Expo were Southern Sun, The Wine Arch, NAMC (National Agricultural Marketing Council), the dtic and the SA Wine Industry Transformation.

22 Proudly SA member companies were invited to showcase their wine brands at the Expo. Corporate buyers, stakeholders as well as consumers were also invited to the wine show. Local wine companies sold and showcased their brands over the three days. The event provided a networking platform for members, buyers, and consumers to engage, learn from each other, conduct sessions on wine-pairing and received valuable information on the wine industry.

The intent was to create a vibrant, innovative wine event, serving to attract new consumers and buyers.

A joint effort by the partners enabled a compelling well-structured and co-ordinated PR & communication plan to achieve a success outcome for the Wine Expo.

Media partners included: Kaya FM (Partner) and 702 created awareness and share event developments by means of live reads and interview opportunities with Proudly SA stakeholders.

TESTIMONIALS FROM WINE MEMBERS

True Vines

"The expo was really beautiful, the ambience, the music was created an amazing environment. The fact that the people that came were specifically came for a wine show was good, because they came with the intentions of buying and tasting wine. The only challenge is that we didn't see a lot of the hospitality industry people visiting our stand. Overall, we would participate over and over again. And we truly made great leads and sales..."

We made R2000, bearing in mind that the wines we were selling were on sale."

Amari Luch

"Overall, a great initiative for which we are grateful to have been invited to.

- Generally, a very well organised event
- Happy with the stall and greatly appreciative of Proudly SA sponsoring taking on the cost of installation
- Was great having secure storage close to the stands
- Recommend having them more often. Maybe one a quarter in different regions e.g. KZN, PTA etc...
- Proudly SA team were very helpful and supportive throughout the weekend
- Thankful for the staff meals
- Convention Centre staff were also very helpful

We are ecstatic to report that we sold a total of 120 bottles over the 3 days"

Lavo wines

"Firstly we would like to thank Proudly S.A for the opportunity they gave us, for Lavo Wines it was not a selling stage but an opportunity to take lavo wine to the people. We also had chance to connect with other wine makers and share quite a number of issues we come across on this space. But we managed to make R 6 230.00 which was good indeed."

Nanola wines

"Good Day;

This is a note of gratitude and also to complement you on the service and professionalism you displayed.

Nanola Wines was one of the exhibitors at the inaugural Local Wine Expo. From the onset, we were introduced to Kutlwano, who was very patient in explaining the process of membership and exhibiting. We were probably one of the late entrants, but this team walked the rushed journey with us.

Portia was on the admin side, and we exchanged a few emails in gathering all the admin documents, etc. With load shedding in the way, the process was rather interesting. Kutlwano was always in the background, making sure that no ball is dropped.

Then come the actual event - the entire Proudly SA team treated us like close family. We commend everyone who played a part in the expo.

It was a great platform for our business; we got exposure and made sales.... All while enjoying meeting different people and forging relationships.

We look forward to continued expos and more growth.

Speaking Engagement: Smart Procurement Indaba, 13th September

The 16th Smart Procurement World Indaba 2022 took place on the 12th to the 15th of September 2022 at the Gallagher Convention Centre.

The 2022 Theme: Glocalised Procurement – Think Global, Act Local

Glocalisation in procurement is more than just looking at what can be procured globally. It is a new phenomenon, that allows for the adaptation of global and international strategies, into the local contexts. Done properly, glocalisation is a stronger economic development tool than globalisation and localisation separated. It looks at the feasibility of applying this concept in developing economies - the pros and cons and the success stories.

The fact is that procurement operates in the most challenging and stressful times and constantly finds itself at the epicenter of business survival initiatives. As the world recovers from COVID-19, we are now entering a period most experts refer to as the "big reset."

The presence of attendees reinforced advocacy for a better and stronger governance to create a prosperous, inclusive economy and shape recovery plans that are aligned with international best practices.

Ms Jeannine Van Straaten (Executive: Strategy, Stakeholder Relations & Legal Proudly South African) spoke on behalf of Proudly SA in a panel discussion on the 13th of September with the topic 'Sourcing a VUCA World.'

All businesses are operating in a VUCA world- Volatility, Uncertainty, Complexity, and Ambiguity. In all this, procurement remains key to ensuring supply and continued business operations. How do you do Strategic Sourcing when the supplier base is continuously changing? How do volatile commodity prices impact sourcing strategies? How can procurement build better lines of defence in anticipation of VUCA? It's not paranoia if the threat is real.

Hulets Student Member Visit, 19 September

As a continuation of our member student visits, which started around Youth month last year where we saw a need for varsity/colleague students and how we can expose them to job opportunities. These visits were a great success, we thought to continue and kick off our new fiscal with the Sugar Sector.

On the 19th of September 2022, Proudly South African together with Tongaat Hulets invited 8 students who are studying Food Science and Biotechnology. The students were treated to a lovely reception by the Hulets employees who began by the day by introducing themselves.

The presentations began where the Training officer – Mpha, explained the whole process of sugar making and processing. After the sugar processing, the students received safety gear and headed into the factory.

The students began with the Off-Loading Bay where they saw trucks offload sugar silt – then into the sugar storehouse where tons and tons of unprocessed sugar were laying. The students then go to see the processing factory where the boilers and all kinds of processing equipment were. This equipment was controlled by an engineer who checks the sugar barrels and sugar levels constantly. We then made our way to the packaging factory where we saw machines that package the sugar we use. These machines package over 50 packs per minute. The tour was an eye-opener for the students. They got to see the process of making sugar and all it entails.

DStv Delicious Food and Music Festival, 24-25 September

2022 has been an exciting year for the Proudly South African campaign. There's an old saying in marketing and comms, 'proof is in the pudding,' and what best way to display Proudly SA's ethos of supporting locals than to partner with one of the most extensive foods and music festivals in the continent. The DStv Delicious Festival allowed Proudly South African to be at the forefront of consumers while displaying the 'local is lekker' rippled effect.

Before this year's festival instalment, it had been postponed since the Covid-19 pandemic hit the country. However, the return not only kindled us from the cold winter blues but also restored our love for music, food, gatherings and Mzansi good times.

We saw over 20 000 festival-goers celebrating South African sounds infused with international acts to beef up the rhythmic Saturday and soulful Sunday vibes. Again, Proudly South African played a critical role in demonstrating its passion for collaborating with local producers and encouraging consumers to buy local.

The partnership with Delicious is significant to Proudly SA due to the vast range of job opportunities that the event created and contributes to – from security staff, vendors, drivers, and accommodation venues to artists and their teams, ticketing companies, infrastructure suppliers, and sound and light suppliers.

In celebration of our 21st anniversary, Proudly SA gave 21 of its member companies free exhibition and trade space at the festival to increase and widen their access to various markets. The tagline "Deliciously Local" portrays our theme within our area. Our objective was to create a vibrant showcase of all things local and lekker.

Named the Proudly SA Village, we created two areas highlighting lifestyle, food, beverage, and dessert members this year. In addition, the village presented members with an array of clothing, condiment, and snack industries with an opportunity to promote their brands. In total, we hosted 15 members ranging from local South African cuisine to pizza and vegan street food.

The 15 members were faced with great success, with some selling out on the day (Zazi Production and Sumting Fresh, to name a few). This is a massive success from a Proudly South African point of view, as we supported our members and moved a step closer towards increasing job creation opportunities.

Activation Touch Points:

To ensure brand visibility and build brand equity was sustained by boosting brand love, the Proudly South African team showed up through the following touchpoints,

Public Picnic area

The DStv Delicious Festival created a public picnic area which was the main attraction. The large picnic area allowed visitors to bring their own seating while enjoying the festivities. This made the perfect opportunity for us to create brand awareness and connect with those who attended the festival over the two days.

How we achieved the consumer interface was strategic and intentional, as we understood the type of audience on the respective days. To be in-culture, we had to be the culture; as such, we formed 40 blow-up balls that festival goers used during the key performances where they bounced them in excitement within the crowds.

Branding

During the Afrobeats sensation, Burna Boy performance on the main stage, the digital screens broadcasted a Proudly SA reel that showcased all the partners as well as some of the company's members. We then also showed up via the branded pop-up shop where we displayed the 360-degree camera activation. Following that, the branding journey lived on through the path leading to the food village where we displayed tear-drop banners and a backdrop at each vendor.

Branding was also visibly seen at the Chill Zone with 'local is lekker' signage, branded content on plasma screens, and a decorative wall used for User Generate Content (UGC).

Chill Zone

Within our Proudly SA village, we provided visitors with a chill zone. The chill zone provided a comfortable place to relax and enjoy the delicious local food near our food village. Proudly South African Member Events By Onnica provided chic and stylish seating for the area, showcasing our local suppliers. The site incorporated our bright and Proudly South African colours of yellow, red, blue, and green.

The shaded area provided much-needed relief from the sun and was utilised by many visitors over the two days. In addition, our decorative branded wall provided the perfect backdrop to snap a selfie and tag the festival and Proudly South African village on our various social media platforms.

While enjoying the array of food and soaking in the festival, the Chill Zone offered a digital display of the DStv Delicious Festival cookbook, which consumers gained access to via a QR code scan. The book launched in August and is a Stars book project aimed to fuse the diverse Mzansi musicians with unique food experiences.

360 Degree camera activation

Our camera activation was popular with visitors providing a fun way to remember the day as they received a free downloaded branded video as a memento of the festival. The area was in a prime location and direct access point for visitors entering the event. Effectively branded, it provided a hub of activity and brand awareness. In addition, the activation created a high reach and engagement on our social media platforms.

Long queues could be seen from the festival's opening to the closing as visitors flocked to the area to capture their moment on the platform.

Hospitality

The festival allowed large corporations and organisations to host clients and stakeholders in various hospitality areas. We hosted our critical stakeholders within the Ambassador lounge on the Saturday and Sunday activities and the public access picnic area. Guests were treated to VIP service from parking, food and beverage, comfortable seating, and excellent views of the stage.

Our esteemed guests were:

- Department of Trade, Industry and Competition (dtic)
- Department of Mineral Resources and Energy (DMRE)
- Tourism Business Council of South Africa (TBCSA)
- Twizza
- CNBC Africa
- Brand Africa

Pop-Up Shop

We spiced things up this year with a new addition to the Proudly South African village in 2022 – a Pop-Up Shop. We had a selection of crucial lifestyle members that were selected to showcase their products to create a pop-up shop. This allowed small businesses to build brand awareness and increase sales.

Our selection of vendors encompassed a combination of snacks, confectionary and clothing, creating the perfect local one-stop shop. The festival was a first for all these vendors showcasing their business to many consumers.

Our Pop-Up Shop vendors included:

- Conzas Biscuits
- Miente Manufacturing
- Chuck Chillie Foods
- Zazi's productions
- Atchariser
- DV Store
- Funo Designs
- Chepa Streetwear

Food Village

Taste buds were tested on the day as we saw the Proudly SA food village offering a variety of delicious, gourmet South African food and beverages prepared by the 15 food members. The 15 members were selected based on their long-standing service to Proudly South African and their high-quality food and professional set-up.

The village was strategically situated enroute to the main stage area, meaning visitors could take a leisurely walk & stopping to check out the variety of food items on offer. The menu offerings were diverse, providing something for everyone from vegan, pizza, Kota, dumplings, prawns, chicken wings and more deliciously local options.

The vendors proclaimed their success as they saw their sales figures increase, with some reporting they had doubled their efforts since attending in 2019. In addition, the festival's sales provided some vendors with the chance to invest in building their businesses or renovations.

We formed a consumer competition with our valued partner Southern Sun. The competition entailed giving away two tickets for a weekend getaway prize at any Southern Sun hotel in South Africa. In addition, consumers were tasked with collecting five stickers daily by purchasing from any of the Proudly South African food vendors.

Furthermore, we ran a social media competition where consumers got to walk away with two double GA tickets for the Saturday leg of the festival. In addition, consumers had to share how many traders

Proudly SA was hosting on the day, which saw many South African participating in their attempt to win tickets to the sought-after event.

Food village vendors included:

- Sumting Fresh
- The Vegan Chef
- Slush Dolls
- Why Cook
- Kota King
- Selai
- Have Wings
- Cosmo Dumplings
- Corner Dladla Pizzeria
- Mo's Food and Pastries
- Makhamsa Foods
- Bokhabane Events
- Yamama Gemmer
- Sihle's Brew (Pty)ltd
- Black Premyum

Overall, the experience at the DStv Delicious Festival was wholesome, complemented by the beautiful sunny day. We saw many fashionable festival goers who enjoyed good food, music, and beverages. Proudly South African placed its members at the forefront on a grander scale, enabling them to showcase their products. The vast opportunities presented by Proudly SA for the members reiterated our commitment to uplifting an ethos that promotes social and economic change and progress.

The DStv Delicious Festival was a huge success for our company, the two days offered two types of clients and insights from that is:

1. Saturday was more of a young crowd, and they were mostly buying based on novelty and peer reviews
2. Sunday was a more mature and mellow crowd that enjoys decadent treats. We made the most money on this day and had great connections with a few patrons
3. We also got several leads with regards to marketing, supplier development and store listings which we are currently pursuing
4. We were able to sell 146 units which amounted to around R12 000 for the two days which is a huge success for our company as we usually make that over a two-week period currently
5. The branding and positions were excellent including being paired with a juice company which complemented our product very well

Atchariser (Pty) Ltd

On behalf of the Atchariser (Pty) Ltd, we would like to say a massive thank you to Proudly South African and DStv Delicious for giving us an opportunity to showcase our unique product at the event. Not only did you provide us with excellent opportunity, but you also went out of your way to provide us with good service from professional staff (PSA) to accommodate different needs that arose from different briefing meetings for the DStv Delicious event.

As key to a successful marketing campaign, we have set ourselves clear objectives to build our brand, generate white hot leads, educate the market on what we offer, upsell existing customers and generating sales. I am proud to announce that through the event we manage to meet all our objectives and beyond that, potential customers were willing to exchange their email addresses, phone numbers and more for orders and to get more information about our product. On the second day we were almost sold out! Our database has increased and there's collaborations formed with other businesses who are fellow members of the PSA that we met at the event.

Thank you! We definitely had a great time. I thought it was one of our best events we've had to date... simple and effective! PSA certainly makes things extremely easy and were more than accommodating to us.

Looking forward to more invites!

Cosmo Dumpling

Thank you very much once again for the opportunity given to Cosmo Dumpling

Most definitely our clientele base has increased since we came back from the show. We are more exposed and the testimonies we received really gives us hope and dedication to work even more.

4.5) PR, COMMUNICATIONS & MEDIA

4.5.1) SUMMARY

PR underwent a series of media and consumer-facing activities during quarter 2 of the 2022/2023 financial year. These activities include the brand-owned Local Fashion Police 2.0 and the Impact Of Localisation in South Africa (If any) media events. In addition, PR and Events hosted its first owned Wine Expo during this period to further entrench the organisation and its call to enhance locally made products/services.

Localisation is the centrepiece of the South African spectrum, indicated through the second leg of the Local Fashion Police launch—a campaign designed to put local fashion designers at the helm of consumers' buying choices.

Proudly SA prides itself in being innovative; as such, the third instalment of the report titled 'Revitalisation of Manufacturing in South Africa' was released. Affording us the right to unpack the insightful findings through a regional roadshow which started in Gauteng and would later visit other regions.

In partnership with our member company Hullets, we took seven students in the food, science and technology industry to the factory. The students had the opportunity to learn about their roles in this sector, such as food technologists or food & safety.

Social media pages were interactive as Proudly South African engagements included member company support and a high focus on brand-owned activities.

Proudly South African interacted with key industry players within the food, drink and music areas, namely; the DStv Delicious Festival and South African Music Awards, where we ran a Win A Car Competition to celebrate local is lekker music.

In the true spirit of Mzansi, celebrations occurred when Banyana Banyana reigned supreme at the Women's Africa Cup of Nations, bringing the cup of nations. Proudly South African took on a brave stance by calling for appropriate recognition of women's football in South Africa.

The second quarter achieved a PR value of R46 994 877, garnered through press release syndication and interview opportunities with the CEO and CMO. We maintained the 2% engagement rate across our social media platforms.

BRAND MANAGEMENT

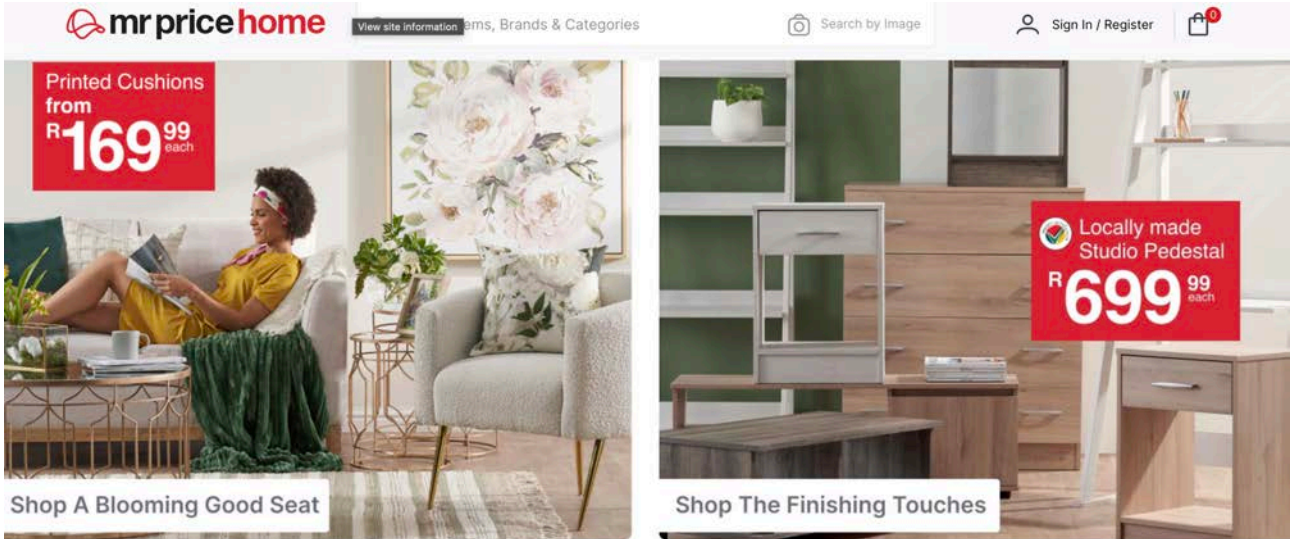

The branding focus during the quarter in review was to create visual content for the department. We created design work for the events and activations in the quarter. This included invitations, web banners, ecards and event banners. This work has been done to elevate the level of quality of the webinars to make them look professional and consistent within all the different events happening. We also worked on advertising elements for the event to drive registration and participation. To create more of a buzz around the event, we used digital advertising to reach a large, targeted audience from our various social media platforms including Twitter, Facebook, LinkedIn and Instagram.

We continue to act as a support function to the Marketing Department and the company by creating presentations for client meetings, high level engagements by the executive team as well as designing ecards, invitations as well as web services for the various initiatives the company undertakes. Our message for the Quarter was Living Lekker Locally, We presented this message on various touch points of the brand online, events as well as advertising.

Delicious festival was our flagship event in this quarter we branded the event Proudly South African, by showcasing our over 21 member companies in the food and drink space as well as the lifestyle space. We had for zones at the event including, 360 camera activation , chill zone – where consumers can sit after buying our local members, enter competitions as well as engage our brand. We then had a lifestyle stands as well as food stands. Our aim at this event was to gain access to the 40 000 visitors and educate them about our brand and our Living Lekker Locally messaging. We got milage from pre and post event coverage such as on social media as well as well as the event media launch.

BRAND COLLABORATION WITH DELICIOUS FESTIVAL

A Proudly South African Festival

Food speaks to our tribe, our race, our religion and our culture but it also transcends all of these. It brings families and communities together to nourish and to heal. We gather in kitchens to prepare it, we join to mourn and to celebrate in the eating of it. Food travels. Think picnics and padkors, festivals and fundays. Kasi to Kyalami.

The Delicious Festival gives everyone the opportunity to try township food in the suburbs. Whether we've never had a kota before or we left it behind when we moved out, the taste is unique.

Gemmer, traditionally served at weddings and funerals, becomes a universal thirst quencher as the ginger refreshes and fizzes on the tongue.

And it's also a platform for international food to be offered in a uniquely South African way. Pizza with morogo, wings with a special ankozing. "Where else can you find all the special aromas and tastes of South African cooking in one place? Braaivleis and vetkoek, bunny chow and boerewors, pizza and pig."

Delicious has brought all this together for us. For traders to be exposed to new customers, for palates to try never before tasted home made specialities. Our culture is as unique and diverse as our people and our land. Our dishes can be served at the most lavish of banquets and on the most humble of streets.

YAMAMA GEMMER

YaMama Gemmer is the brainchild of sisters Mosibudi Makgato and Rosemary Padi who noticed that the traditional celebratory drink was becoming less prevalent at traditional weddings and other functions.

"More and more families found it more convenient to rather buy and serve fizzy drinks and bottled juices from supermarkets than to brew Gemmer or wait for that one aunty from the villages who knows how to brew it perfectly," says Mosibudi.

They brew and sell bottled Gemmer in both concentrate and ready-to-drink offerings. Their concentrate can be used to as a cordial, as tea or can be diluted to make a cool drink.

The young market has a specific palate, so they were very attracted by our Gemmer garnished with mint and fruits and as it is a slush on a hot summer's day.

KOTA KING

Kota King is a family business that started back in 2010 when owner Rhlulani Shibambo's father lost his job. Rhlulani would come home every day after school to help his family out with the business and after finishing matric, he went on to study Food and Beverage Management. This when his passion for the business grew.

Being part of the Delicious Festival helped us so much with brand awareness - their clientele, who is a higher LSM found it easier to trust and love our brand whenever they walk past our stores

PRIVATE SECTOR

Proudly South African Access to Market Localisation Tools

Proudly SA is actively lobbying for localisation commitments from the private sector, and there are a number of tools in place to help facilitate offtake agreements:

1. Market Access Platform (MAP)
2. Proudly SA's Portals

1. Market Access Platform (MAP) www.mapcollaboration.com

Launched in August 2021, the main goal of the platform is to create a database of reliable local manufacturers and service providers from which businesses that have undertaken to increase their uptake of local products and services can procure. Businesses (“corporate buyers”) utilising MAP will be able to rate listed suppliers, which means that the database is a source of local content and quality vetted companies. Members of Proudly SA are automatically eligible to be enlisted on MAP as “suppliers”. This is yet another tool for matching supply and demand of locally made-goods and services for Proudly SA members.

In quarter 3 of 2022/2023, Proudly SA will commence with loading all willing Proudly SA member companies on MAP whilst it is constantly exploring ways to improve MAP in order to keep it current and to support Corporate Buyers’ preferential procurement targets. In quarter 3 and throughout the financial year, efforts are underway to invite procurement officers from Corporate South Africa to enlist as Corporate Buyers on MAP, in order to obtain localisation commitments from the private sector.

Benefits of MAP:

Corporate Buyers will be able to:

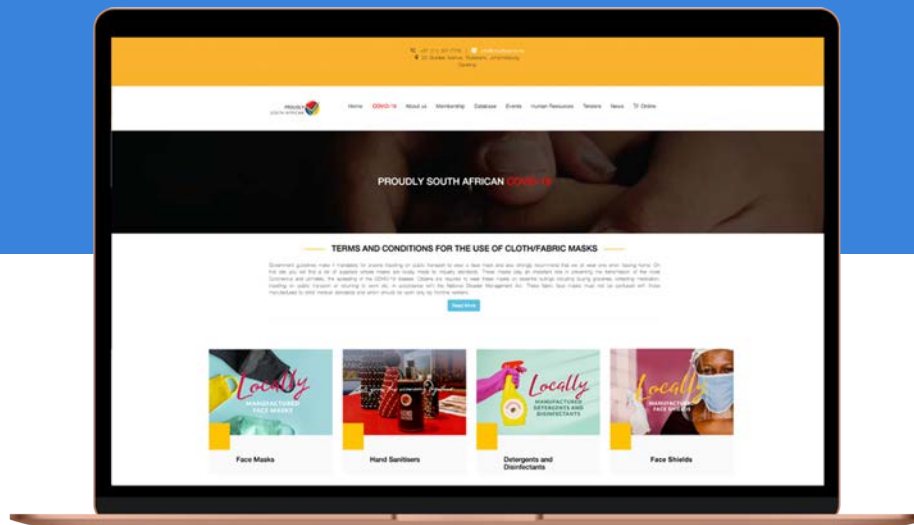

- Find reliable and vetted localised and transformed suppliers
- Refer their high performing transformed suppliers, local manufacturers and service providers to MAP, thereby enabling them to grow and become more competitive
- Advertise procurement opportunities for the private sector

2. PROUDLY SA'S COVID-19 PORTALS (www.proudlysa.co.za)

Background and vision

In 2020, Proudly SA partnered the Department of Trade, Industry and Competition (the dtic), the South African Clothing and Textile Workers Union (SACTWU), the Bargaining Council for the Clothing Manufacturing Industry and the Manufacturing Circle to roll out a cloth face mask portal housed on Proudly SA's website to heed the demand for locally-made PPEs in the pandemic. Developing industry- and product-specific portals were also a mechanism for Proudly South African to support the Local Manufacturing Partnership that was created through the Business for South Africa Initiative by showcasing more than 60 manufacturers that were supported by this initiative to close the gap between the supply of locally-manufactured PPEs and demand, and to assist companies to become procurement-ready.

Purpose

These portals comprise a comprehensive list of local manufacturers producing products that have been vetted in accordance with industry standards as determined by the regulators, and in accordance with the specifications determined by the public sector. Individuals interested in procuring local products will have access to the company name, the contact person, the company's location, website and contact details, including an image of the product offering as well as a detailed description. Not only do these portals serve as a marketplace for local manufacturers of PPEs and various other products, they are also indicative of the availability of local products more broadly in the country. The portals provide Procurement Officers the option to procure locally-made products from manufacturers directly, with Proudly South African's connection being synonymous with quality.

Current Product offerings

- face cloth mask
- face shields/visors
- sanitisers
- disinfectants and detergents
- medical PPEs vetted in accordance with the National Department of Health and SAHPRA/NRCS specifications:
 - disposable/plastic aprons
 - disposable/isolation gowns
 - surgical masks
 - FFP2 respirators
 - SAHPRA-licensed sanitisers
 - non-sterile examination, sterile and non-sterile surgical gloves
 - other textile PPEs that include scrubs, bonnets, boot covers, coveralls and shoe covers
- furniture (in partnership with the dtic)

Stakeholders

The portals have been well-received by stakeholders both within the public and private sectors, as well as consumers wishing to procure PPE for everyday use. As PPE has been largely designated by the public sector, Proudly SA has focused mostly on promoting the portals to the private sector. Proudly SA has reached out (and continues to do so) to the Procurement Officers from all spheres of society utilising its membership base, stakeholders that formed a part of the Nedlac Localisation Technical Working Committee namely, the Manufacturing Circle, Business Leadership South Africa (BLSA), Consumer Goods Council of South Africa (CGCSA), and Business Unity South Africa (BUSU) and each body's membership base; the Localisation Support Fund; the associations that form a part of the South African Revenue Services' industry-specific forums; as well as associations and industry bodies; Labour Unions; businesses that form part of the township economy; and Government Departments and Agencies including the dtic through its sector desks, Development Finance Institutions, Department of Small Business Development, the Eastern Cape Development Corporation, Special Economic Zones, and the Gauteng Growth and Development Agency, and National and Provincial Government, Local Municipalities, Metros and State-owned Enterprises.

Proudly SA will strengthen its reach in terms of advocating the support of these tools to the private sector at large. Efforts are underway to obtain localisation commitments from association bodies such as the Franchise Association of South Africa, The National Association of Automobile Manufacturers of South Africa, the National Association of Automotive Component and Allied Manufacturers, the South African Furniture Initiative, the South African Petroleum Industry Association, the Banking Association South Africa, the Minerals Council and Mining Equipment Manufacturers of South Africa, the Agricultural Business Chamber of South Africa, the Institute of Plumbing South Africa, the National Hospital Network, the Consumer Goods Council of South Africa, the Tourism Business Council of South Africa, the Restaurant Association, the Taverners Association, and the Self-Care Association of South Africa.

Proudly SA is participating in various activities to further drive localisation by presenting its localisation tools namely the Portals and MAP to obtain localisation commitments as the first step in securing offtake agreements:

1) Expanding on commitments made at the 2018 Jobs Summit

In 2018, Proudly SA invited 25 companies to make localisation commitments. Since then, Proudly SA has engaged the Franchise Association of South Africa, The National Association of Automobile Manufacturers of South Africa, the National Association of Automotive Component and Allied Manufacturers, the South African Furniture Initiative, the South African Petroleum Industry Association, the Banking Association South Africa, the Minerals Council and Mining Equipment Manufacturers of South Africa, the Agricultural Business Chamber of South Africa, the Institute of Plumbing South Africa, the National Hospital Network, the Consumer Goods Council of South Africa, the Tourism Business Council of South Africa, the Restaurant Association, the Taverners Association, and the Self-Care Association of South Africa to obtain localisation commitments firstly on industry level, and then from their members (individual companies). Efforts are underway to solidify these commitments and further expand on the list of stakeholders by industry to increase participation of this important and impactful initiative.

At Proudly SA's annual Buy Local Summit and Expo hosted at the Industrial Development Corporation in Gauteng 14 to 16 March 2022, localisation commitments were made by the following corporates:

- The Standard Bank
- OBC Retail
- Absa
- SAB (South African Breweries) Corporate
- TFG (The Foschini Group)
- PG Bison
- Nissan SA
- Aspen Pharmacare

On industry-level:

- NAAMSA (National Association of Automobile Manufacturers of South Africa)
- South African Canegrowers' Association

In June 2022, Shoprite for poultry and its house brands, and Makro for wine purchases have announced that it would support Proudly SA in terms of giving localisation commitments.

In September 2022, Proudly SA hosted a procurement session for 20 of its members to pitch their products and services to the members of the Franchise Association of South Africa in an effort to promote localisation amongst the Franchise industry.

2) dtic and other Government Departmental Masterplans

Over and above Consumer Education, Proudly SA is working behind the scenes to lobby for localisation commitments from the private sector to drive demand (by securing offtake agreements).

Currently, Proudly SA is actively participating in:

- Retail-Clothing, Textile, Footwear and Leather
- Sugar
- Poultry
- Steel
- Creative Industries (facilitated by the Department of Small Business Development)
- soon to be signed off Furniture
- soon to be signed off Agriculture and Agro-processing (facilitated by the Department of Agriculture, Land Reform and Rural Development)

Through its partnerships, participation in the following masterplans will follow:

- Automotive through the National Association of Automobile Manufacturers of South Africa (NAAMSA)
- Plastics (through the dtic sector desk)

3) dtic CEO Initiative and Localisation Support Fund Programmes

Proudly SA's Market Access Platform has been earmarked as a procurement tool for both the dtic CEO Initiative and the Localisation Support Fund Programmes. The dtic CEO Initiative seeks to drive import replacement of 42 products, whilst the Localisation Support Fund, funded by Coca-Cola Beverages South Africa, is identifying specific products to industrialise by unblocking hurdles from a technical viewpoint. Proudly SA is playing a supporting role in both endeavours by assisting the teams to earmark pilot projects and providing introductions to interested stakeholders (including labour, the private sector – including but not limited to retail, plastics, component manufacturers, the dtic).

4) Localisation Technical Working Committee (related to the work of the dtic CEO Initiative) now called the BUSA Localisation Committee

Participants of the BUSA Localisation Committee include Proudly SA (who initiated the forum following the 2018 Jobs Summit), Business Unity South Africa, the Manufacturing Circle, the Consumer Goods Council of South Africa, and Business Leadership South Africa. The team initially supported Proudly SA's Market Access Platform as the procurement tool of choice for localised and transformed suppliers, and three engagements were arranged to showcase MAP in 2020/2021 to the dtic Minister, and in 2021/2022 to BUSA (as the Nedlac business apex body) and the nominated CEO champions as part of the dtic CEO Initiative. With the appointment of a Project Manager by Business Unity South Africa, Proudly SA will continue to support this Committee in further driving import replacement.

Ask from Industry Champions (CEOs)

- i) Delegate:
 - Delegate responsibility for implementation to the Procurement Teams
 - One identified point person to interact with PMO
 - Champions will act as promoters of the localisation initiative, including encouraging peers to join the initiative

- ii) Establish Supply and Demand:
 - PMO will share the supply and demand template with all champions
 - Champions should identify what internal / sectoral capacity they can mobilise
 - Procurement teams to populate supply and demand template
 - For each identified product, procurement teams should identify demand/supply data; manufacturing capacity/capability; opportunities; blockages; current initiatives
- iii) Additional Support Required:
 - Submit completed templates to the PMO
 - Direct queries to the PMO
- iv) Complete Template:
 - Indicate support required. For example, sourcing of vetted localised and transformed suppliers
 - The Market Access Platform (MAP) is available to Industry CEOs and Procurement Teams as a sourcing tool for localised and transformed suppliers

8) External Stakeholder Forums

The South African Revenue Service Industry Stakeholder Forums

To support the industries that are flooded with imports, SARS convenes quarterly meetings in order to establish areas of collaboration between SARS and industry on a formal basis by considering the protection of the economy, fiscus and people; for SARS to contribute to the efficient and effective regulation of Customs and Excise processes; and to improve South Africa's reputation as a reliable and trustworthy trade partner by promoting facilitation and compliance with legislation.

Proudly SA was invited to participate in all SARS' stakeholder forums each quarter for the following industries: alcohol, sugar and beverages, tyres, plastics, scrap metal, downstream steel, tobacco, petrol, furniture, clothing and textile, and footwear and leather.

Members of the committees are informed of trade trends, requirements and developments that impact on business, are provided with advice on issues to enhance/improve trade facilitation and compliance, challenges experienced by SARS or industry are reviewed in order to suggest strategic business direction and best practices.

Members consist of the relevant SARS' representatives from the Customs and Excise teams, government (usually a representative of the applicable dtic sector desk), and industry bodies.

Initially, Proudly SA was introduced to the Customs and Excise team in order to receive assistance on its import replacement project on the basis that there is misinterpretation/misclassification of imports of the Standard Industry Classification codes – especially with the wide use of the word “other” across all sectors. Proudly SA managed to obtain support from the team in this regard as it was established that it is legislated to formally declare imports as per invoicing details. SARS is exploring the possibility to review its processes and systems in order to implement the legislation.

The forums also provide Proudly SA the opportunity to represent member companies, and to report to members on the state of imports in the country with a view to decrease and eventually alleviate dumping of product on the shores of the country.

In 2021/2022, Proudly SA was given the opportunity to present its projects to the bodies present in these stakeholder forums, all with a view to promote industrialisation in the country (to reduce imports as much as possible) by obtaining localisation commitments on industry-level. Efforts are currently underway to meet with the members of the associations present at these forums.

Similarly, Proudly SA is cultivating relationships with Harambee Youth Employment Accelerator, the Franchise Association of South Africa, and the Gauteng Department of Economic Development to participate in its stakeholder forums or other programmes in 2022 and beyond.

9) Sector-specific engagements

Proudly SA hosted the National Hospital Network and its members at two procurement forums for medical PPE and other consumables in February 2022 to gain support for its portals and Market Access Platform.

At the Proudly SA Buy Local Summit and Expo held at the Industrial Development Corporation 14 to 16 March 2022, Proudly SA hosted three sector-specific events in Clothing, Textile, Footwear and Leather; Furniture; and Automotive to highlight the multiplier effect and the extensive value chains these sectors offer, and the vast number of jobs created by companies in this sector – all with a view to encourage the private and public sectors as well as consumers to procure locally-made equivalents to increase demand.

PUBLIC SECTOR

Proudly South African Access to Market Localisation Tools & Activities

Proudly SA is mandated to:

- advocate for the public sector to buy local in terms of the PPPFA through Designation; and
- influence for self-designation where possible.

Proudly SA is actively lobbying for localisation commitments from the public and private sectors, and it has a number of tools and activities in place to help facilitate offtake agreements:

1) Proudly SA's Tender Monitoring Function

To support the efforts to drive stricter adherence to local procurement legislation (within the public sector), Proudly SA has launched the Tender Monitoring Function in April 2017 which now searches through over 815 government and SOE websites for tenders that are required to stipulate an element of local content. As part of Proudly SA's value proposition for members, they are matched with companies that are able to fulfil the tenders and are flagged and sent to the dtic to monitor compliance.

The current list of products designated for local content includes:

the dtic continues to monitor the implementation of local content by following up on published bids with designated products and intervening where local content requirements are not specified. This is done with the assistance of the Proudly South African Tender Monitoring Function. Initiated for the dtic to assess levels of compliance and to ensure implementation of local content requirements, especially at the initial bidding stage. The automated system searches over 815 government and SOEs websites. The tender adverts extracted from the system are flagged and sent to the dtic via email for daily follow-ups. the dtic's industrial procurement unit then screens through the adverts to verify if those bids fall within the designated sectors. For those that are found to be within the designations, the unit will engage with relevant organs of state to establish if the bid document includes local content requirements or not. Compliant bids will be categorised and reported as such; for non-compliant bids, the unit will offer to assist the relevant organ of state in amending the bid for compliance purposes and update the status once the bid is amended. The unit submits reports on a bi-annual basis.

In Q2 of 2022/2023, Proudly SA tender monitoring function picked up 1,409 tenders related to the 28 products designated for local content.

the dtic reported the following in terms of compliance levels from 1 January 2022 to 30 August 2022:

the dtic categorises bids in terms of compliance with local content requirements into three categories; these include whether they are compliant, non-compliant and whether the local content is unclear.

- Compliant: Local content included as a condition of the bid. All local content declaration documents were attached to the bid document – the standard bidding form (SBD/MBD 6.2) and associated annexures (Annex C, D and E).
- Non-Compliant: No mention of local content requirements for designated products in the bid document.
- Not Clear: Description used for the required item is vague, not clear whether it falls within the designations or not.

“For the period January to March 2022, 65 bids out of 107 which is 61% were found to be compliant. In the following reporting period, April to August 2022, only 53% were found to be compliant. It can be concluded that the compliance level dropped due to the Constitutional Court judgement passed on the 16th February 2022, stating that the Preferential Procurement Regulations of 2017 are invalid in totality. The government notes and respects the recent Constitutional Court’s judgement. The grace period to continue implementing the regulations is February 2023. There is no doubt that the Constitutional Court’s judgment had negative consequences in supporting local production through public procurement even though local content was not the subject of litigation in the Minister of Finance versus Agribusiness case. The government will consider other legal avenues to empower organs of state to deal with (i) preference in the allocation of contracts and (ii) contract with persons, or categories of persons, historically disadvantaged by unfair discrimination.

This is an obligation in line with section 217(2) of the Constitution and section 2 of the PPPFA. the dtic has worked hard in the past six months engaging with procuring organs of state to advise on the implementation of local content utilising provisions in their individual Preferential Procurement policies or Supply Chain Management policies.”

2) Events – Public Sector Procurement Forums (education drive):

With the dtic Industrial Procurement Unit, the South African Bureau of Standards, Auditor General of South Africa and National Treasury, Proudly SA facilitates events to educate the public sector on the importance of localisation. Events are facilitate as per follows:

- i) Provincial (all 9 provinces)
- ii) State-owned Enterprise Procurement Forum (one annually)
- iii) Metros (new activity)
- iv) Municipalities through SALGA (new activity)
- v) National in partnership with National Treasury in 2022 (new activity)

3) Updating of Specifications

Piloting office furniture, Proudly SA is working with the dtic sector desk and industry to update specifications and revise the local content thresholds in designation to match what industry can supply.

4) SABS Local Content Verification

Proudly SA is participating and supporting the South African Bureau of Standards in its Local Content Verification Initiative by recognising its local content mark as a part of the Proudly SA Market Access Platform.

5) Integration with the CSD

In order to ease the process for those members of Proudly SA not yet enlisted on National Treasury’s Central Supplier Database to enlist by virtue of their memberships (and depending on whether they comply with NT’s requirements), Proudly SA is undertaking an integration process with the CSD. Development work for both organisations have been completed. Proudly SA is currently finalising its database for integration. Members will also have the benefit of the use of the Proudly SA member logo beside their listing to encourage those buying for government, to buy from local manufacturers and service providers where companies’ products and services are vetted in terms of Proudly SA’s criteria for local content and quality.
